

Cooperative Boards

Attorney

The Operational Board may annually recommend an attorney to serve as legal advisor to the Governing Board, Operational Board, and Executive Director.

The attorney serves on a retainer or other fee arrangement approved by the Board.

The attorney will serve as counselor to the Executive Director and to the Board when requested by the Executive Director or Board's Chairman.

The Boards shall retain the right to consult or employ other attorneys on matters of special concern and to terminate the service of any attorney.
